

New Webcast Series Available: Introduction to Work Incentives and Ticket to Work

☆ New Online Modules now available ☆

New webcast modules promote an understanding of Work Incentives, tailor-made for individuals and families interested in Work Incentives.

The purpose of this series of five webcasts, presented by The Pennsylvania Training Partnership for People with Disabilities and Families, is to equip Social Security beneficiaries with information to help people be less fearful of employment options and encourage the understanding that employment can be a successful endeavor for people who have disabilities.

The five webcasts in the Introduction to Work Incentives and Ticket to Work series are:

- Background Information You Will Need to Understand Work Incentives (19 min., 25 Sec.)
Provides basic background information that is important for understanding how employment may affect cash and health care benefits
- Work Incentives for SSDI Beneficiaries (18 min., 40 sec.)
Covers the work incentives that are in place specifically for SSDI beneficiaries
- Work Incentives for SSI Beneficiaries (17 min., 37 sec.)
Covers the work incentives that are in place specifically for SSI beneficiaries
- Work and Impact on Medicaid and Medicare Health Care Benefits (9 minutes, 28 sec.)
Covers how SSA beneficiaries can maintain their health care benefits if they need them after they begin working
- Ticket to Work and Other Resources to Help You Get and Keep a Job (18 min.)
