

Advanced Placement English 12
Classroom Rules
Mrs. Dufalla

1. Be on time for class. You are seniors; you know the rules.
2. Come prepared! You must have your book, notebook, pen, pencil (already sharpened) and other necessary materials.
3. This class requires regular attendance. The nature of this class is very simple. You will read, analyze, write and discuss literature; therefore, you must be involved in all aspects. Discussion in an important part of this class and you are expected to participate. If you are not able to discuss with the class because of absences, you will be asked to respond to a discussion question.
4. Disruptive behavior will not be tolerated. You are here to learn and I am here to teach. You must be courteous to your peers. You will not infringe on their right to learn by displaying disruptive behavior. No sleeping or resting your head; this will be considered disruptive behavior.
5. Cheating, profanity, plagiarism, and/or harassment will not be tolerated.
6. Be courteous, honest, and respectful. I plan on treating you in this manner, and I expect you to treat me and your peers in this manner. This type of class requires you to work in pairs as well as groups. These groups may be assigned to you; however, sometimes you may choose your own group. You must cooperate and work with other students.
7. Your assignments have due dates. Assignments must be turned in on the due dates regardless of whether you are in school or not. A deduction of 10 points each day your assignment is due, including weekends.
8. If you do not understand the material being covered, please see me for additional help.
9. CELL PHONES....I SEE IT....I HEAR IT....I TAKE IT.....
11. Grading follows the student handbook.

