

GRADING PROCEDURES

Total points acquired by the student throughout the grading period will be compared to the total points offered during that period. Points will be offered in the form of chapter tests, quizzes, homework assignments, lab reports, and special research assignments. A mid-term and final exam will also be given in January and June, respectively. Each will count as 10% of the final grade for the class.

90% - 100% A
